Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL.
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:—

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 91
BROOKLYN	1 13
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 65
EQUITABLE	1 94
MANHATTAN	1 42

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—Its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.
These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE, &c.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 300 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular Saw, run by a Jouvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed.—There is also a tram road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary outhouses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.

The water on the place is excellent, and it is one of the healthiest locations in the low country.

TERMS OF SALE:

One hundred and fifty dollars cash; four thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the 4th Monday in March, 1868, and notes at six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest. For the balance, bonds with approved security will be required, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid. Possession given on the first day of February, 1868.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1868

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

NO ORGANIZATION.

It will be seen, by reference to the abstract of proceedings, in another column, that the so-called Convention effected no permanent organization on yesterday.

It is understood that the elements in caucus, on Monday night, were not very harmonious, and that considerable opposition is apparent to the manifest purpose of the Northern foreign element to control the organization. That opposition will succumb. The Yankees will win, as we shall, doubtless, be able to announce to-morrow.

The Conservatives in the Convention will doubtless cast their votes for some competent and suitable gentlemen for President.

THE "CONVENTION."

Of the one hundred and twenty delegates elected to the Convention, nearly one hundred of them, perhaps, are committed to the Radical programme, whatever that may be. The few Conservatives in the body are, consequently, powerless to defeat or prevent any measure, however offensive or destructive to the peace and future welfare of the State. It is, therefore, not expected of the few Conservatives, that they can even restrain, by moral suasion and by the force of reason and truth, the action of the Radicals, yet they may, by parliamentary tactics, intensify the record of the Radicals in opposition to those plain principles of Republican government hitherto regarded as essential to American liberty, and may bring out, in bolder relief, the hostility of the Radical party to the rule of the white race in North Carolina.

The Radicals have forced upon the South a black man's party, which cannot long submit to be led and controlled by white men, who acknowledge the entire equality of the blacks. The blacks are not ignorant of their importance to the preservation of the Radical party. Hitherto, they have borne, with uncommon fortitude, their exclusion from office by the whites, who, according to their own admission, are not superior to the blacks. How much longer do they expect them to yield all the offices of profit and honor to the few whites of the party, when its existence depends upon the black vote? We neither believe the white or black Radicals capable of filling the necessary offices of the State, but we are in favor of holding the Radical party up to its pledges to the black race. They have promised them equality, in respect to all the franchises of the State. They have cajoled and flattered them with the hope of office and emolument, and we shall demand of the Radicals the fulfilment of their pledges to them.

There are but few Counties in the State, where the Radicals can elect any one without the vote of the blacks. From seventeen Counties in the State, the white delegates of those Counties are here alone by the suffrages and sufferance of the blacks.—Some of those very delegates will fill some of the most important positions in the Convention. Moreover, they are looking to the more important offices to be filled hereafter, if the Constitution should be ratified. Before the Convention adjourns, these offices will all be parcelled out to the leading white Radicals. What will become of the negroes? They are entitled, by their numbers in the Radical party, to the office of Governor and to all the State offices—the positions of United States Senators and the seven or eight Representatives in Congress. Now, will the white Radicals do justice to the negroes in the partition of these offices? We judge not. The blacks will be treated as they have been, and as they were intended to be, from the first.—simply to vote for the party as they may be led. How long will they submit to this, when taught that they are the equals of these whites? If white Radicals admit that the negroes are their equals, and that no distinction shall be made between them, in regard to color, who has any right to dispute it? If the blacks are willing to admit that the white Radicals are their equals, why should they not claim what their large majority of votes in the party entitles them to? Conservatives believe in justice, in men's standing up to their pledges, and if the Radical party is the stronger in the State, and the black Radicals outnumber the white Radicals, ten to one, they will insist that justice to the blacks will compel the Radical party to run a black Governor and black members of Congress, &c.

WHAT IS THE PROGRAMME?

The platform of the Radical party is a labyrinth yet unexplored and unknown even to the fathers of the party. From the day of its inception, to the present, it has exhibited one continuous change of position, to suit the varied hues of the prospect before it—now for the Union, then throttling it to the death; now for the Constitution, then acting "outside" and in antagonism to it; now "loyal" to the government, then fighting with might and main for its destruction; once for "free soil" in new territories, but then pledged not to interfere with slavery in the States; now for the abolition of slavery in the States, but no more, and then for equality of all races before the law; now for impartial or qualified suffrage, then for universal suffrage—only to the negro!

From all which, it is plain, there is but one plank in the platform of the party, i. e. the success of the Radical party. To insure success, it is evident that nothing will be omitted, no pains will be spared; no principle of justice, of right, of safety to the government or to the people, is too sacred, to be sacrificed to the Great Mogul of party.

How long can such a party hope to triumph? In the South, there has really been no impediment to its success, since the war. Especially, since the party quarrelled with the President and ignored his policy, it has had its own way, with nothing to impede its action. Since December, 1865, we have heard of nothing but Congressional reconstruction, and what has been accomplished? With a fair field and without any opposing influence, except the incongruity, loathsomeness and curse of its own programme, the South is as far from Reconstruction by Radical agency as at the beginning.

The party has had its own way. The darkies and the mean whites have all voted as the party desired. The military and Freedmen's Bureau have had no difficulty, in executing the Reconstruction Acts. No opposition has been evinced, on the part of any body, that impeded in the least the execution of the Acts, and yet, in January, 1868, the Congress is so alarmed at the "impending crisis," that, fearing an actual break down under the awful weight of the so-called Radical Conventions, it has suddenly changed its tactics, and now talks seriously of obliterating every remnant of civil government in the Southern States, and placing the entire control of affairs in the hands of the military, under Gen. Grant. And this will be done, if the friends of Judge Chase in Congress will allow it.

Gen. Meade has already inaugurated the Grant platform in Georgia, by the removal of Gov. Jenkins and the Public Treasurer, and the appointment of Gen. Ruger and another army officer to fill the vacancies.—Gen. Meade, no doubt, believes that neither a quasi-civil-military government, which is vexatious and perplexing, nor such a government as the Radical Convention of Georgia would inaugurate, will do. Such officers as the Radical Convention would appoint, he knows could neither be trusted for their capacity or integrity, and, therefore, he determines to place military men in control, who can be held to a strict accountability. We confess that if any change is to be effected in the government of the Southern States—if the civil officers of the South are to be removed, it may be better to place them in the hands of responsible and capable military men altogether, than with such as the Radical Conventions could supply.

A NEWSPAPER correspondent has discovered that an idea, very prevalent among a great many of the Southern people, is as follows: That the Yankees have always coveted the rich soil of the South; that they despised the negroes, would not live with them, and, consequently, wanted to get rid of them; that they hit upon the plan of instituting a war of the races, in which the whites would be impoverished and the negroes gradually die out, thus enabling themselves to seize upon the lands or purchase them at very cheap prices. Whether this has been a deliberate intention on the part of the Jacobins or not, the effect is in every way very much the same.

WASHINGTON, January 10.—If there be a man left favoring a disruption of the Union he must view the current proceedings of Congress with unalloyed satisfaction. Both Houses seem determined to precipitate the country into physical collision. They will repudiate their own reconstruction acts.—They will take a step in advance, and recognize the negro governments as they now stand at the South, and force the country to accept Southern State governments improvised without the consent of North or South! The exact provisions of the law eventually to be enacted have not yet been agreed upon, but their effect will fully comprehend the end I refer to. A public forewarned ought to be forearmed.—Baltimore Gazette.

It is incontestible that the great body of the Southern whites, and a large proportion of the Northern people, believe the Reconstruction acts unconstitutional, and are not likely to change their belief. The Southern whites, thus believing, and thus supported in their behalf by a great party in the North, will never submit to these acts except by military coercion. But military coercion is costly, and impatience under the pressure of taxation will sooner or later compel the federal government to withdraw its armies, when the unpropped structure will fall into immediate collapse. The moral certainty of this result, as the final termination of the experiment (unless it be previously arrested by the Supreme Court,) is so great that only heated partisans can expect the negro governments to be durable.—N. Y. World.

DEATH OF THE AUTHOR OF OLD GRIMES.—The Hon. Albert G. Greene, of Providence R. I., died in Cleveland, Ohio, last week. Judge Greene was a man of high literary attainments and an author of no mean reputation. The well-known stanzas beginning, "Old Grimes is dead, that good old man," is an illustration of the mingling of wit, wisdom and poetry for which its author was remarkable. His historical taste led him to make a collection of rare works relating to early New England history, and which numbers many thousand volumes.

Mr. Stanton now declares that when reinstated by the Senate he shall not resign, but will hold on to the office at his own pleasure.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

TUESDAY, Jan. 14, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 12 o'clock, by Mr. Kinney, delegate from the County of Davidson.

At this point, Mr. Hodnett, of Caswell, said that he had understood that the caucus last night, had pitched upon Mr. K., to call the Convention to order; and, while he had no objection to the gentleman's acting in that capacity, yet he denied the right and legality of such a proceeding. But if Mr. Kinney should be appointed, by a motion regularly put and carried, he would vote for him.

Whereupon, Mr. Heaton, of Craven, arose and made the motion, and it was agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Kinney, Mr. King, of Lenoir, was appointed Chairman pro tem.

On taking the Chair, he read a few sentences from a manuscript prepared for the occasion.

A prayer by the Rev. Mr. Welker, one of the delegates from Guilford, followed.

On motion, Mr. J. P. Andrews, of Wake, was appointed Secretary pro tem.

The roll being called, 85 members responded to their names. (The number was subsequently understood to be 100.)

After some discussion, in regard to the manner of administering the oath and examining credentials, it was determined to call the roll and swear delegates, in bodies of twelve.

Mr. Abbot, of New Hanover, moved that when the Convention adjourn, it adjourn until 12 o'clock to-morrow. Carried.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, then moved that the Convention do now adjourn until the above mentioned time, as there were many members absent.

At the request of the Chairman, he withdrew the motion; where upon, the Secretary read the following dispatch from Gen. Canby to the Commanding Officer at Raleigh:

"General Order No. 165 is amended as follows:

Jno. S. McCubbins, as delegate from Rowan and Davie, in place of I. M. Shaver; J. G. Marler, in place of E. Bartlett, delegate from Watauga. Inform all parties.

By order of

E. R. S. CANBY."

Mr. Rodman, of Beaufort, moved that the gentlemen, whose names were mentioned in the dispatch, be enrolled as members. Carried.

The motion to adjourn being renewed, it was adopted.

STATE ITEMS.

——A correspondent, writing us from Fayetteville, says that a "miserable scamp from some one of the Northern States is prowling about through the country, filling his pockets with the scattering greenbacks in the hands of the negroes, who are silly enough to listen to him. The man tells the negroes that, for one dollar, he will give them a stick, which, if they will plant it on any lot of land they may desire, when the Yankees come through they will receive a deed for the lot on which the stick is planted. Several of the negroes in this county have been foolish enough to give their last dollar for a piece of worthless wood."

——The counties of Cherokee, Macon, Jackson and Haywood, through their County Courts, have each subscribed $50,000 to the Western N. C. Railroad. The contractors are driving their work with uncommon industry and zeal, and the Asheville News predicts that, by Jan. 1, 1869, the road will be completed to Swananoa Gap.

——The "Bureau man" in Macon County has been playing fantastic tricks. The Asheville News says:

"He got wonderfully riled last week, because a jury refused to find a verdict against a good citizen, for knocking down a negro, while in the act of trespass. He charged these men with perjury. Slander suits were spoken of, but he is gone.

This week at Webster he was mad again. A Freedman sued a Freeman, and obtained judgment for five dollars. The Freeman stayed the execution according to law. Our Bureau said the stay should be struck out and the money paid. O tempora! O mores! When will the stricken South be rid of these snobby tyrants?"

—— On the 20th. ult., at night, a party of 15 or 18 negroes, armed to the teeth, appeared on the premises of Mr. Alfred Webb, about two miles from Asheville, and commenced a general searching. On being asked what they wanted, the apparent leader informed Mr. Webb that they were hunting for a man by the name of Green, who had stabbed a colored man the day before. They also said they had United States orders to make the search, but were instructed by the Freedmen's Bureau officer not to show the order to any one, except in the presence of a magistrate. They entered the house in a body, greatly alarming the inmates—particularly Mrs. Webb—and ransacked the place from garret to cellar.

Mr. Webb called on the agent of the Bureau, at that place, the next day, and asked him if he had given such an order, who told him that he had!

When Thad. Stevens declares that the legislation of Congress is now "outside of the Constitution," he puts the Southerners in a rather embarassing position. For, at the same time, Congress compels these unhappy people to take an oath every day or two to "support the Constitution." Now we hold that they should be compelled to swear that besides supporting the Constitution, they will support all that Congress may do outside of it or against it. In this way they would understand their situation exactly, and be unable to growl.—N. Y. Times.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The election in New Hampshire for Governor, Legislature, and other officers will take place on the 10th of March. Great interest will attach to the result, as it will be the first State election of the year. The votes of this State at recent elections were as follows:

	Dem.	Rep.	Rep. maj.
1864	33,044	36,595	3,551
1866	30,181	36,137	5,956
1867	32,063	35,809	3,746

The Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, nominated by the Democrats of Indiana as their candidate for Governor, is now a member of the United States Senate, an able debater, popular with his associates, and strong on the stump. He is about forty-nine years of age, and has been in Congress ten years.

THE NEW "RECONSTRUCTION" BILL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.

The Reconstruction Committee held a meeting this morning and agreed to report the following bill, which will be laid before the House on Monday:

SECTION 1. That in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Florida, and Arkansas the civil State Governments in said States respectively shall not be recognized as valid or legal State governments, either by the executive or judicial power or authority of the United States.

SECTION 2. That in order to secure a more speedy enforcement of the act entitled "An act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2, 1867, and of the several acts supplemental thereto, the General commanding the army of the United States is hereby authorized and required to enjoin, by special orders, upon all officials in command within the several military departments within said states, a strict performance of all acts authorized by the said several laws above recited, and to remove by his order from command any or all said commanders, and detail other officers from the army not below the rank of Colonel to perform all duties and exercise all powers authorized by the said several acts, to the end that the people of the said several States may speedily reorganize the civil governments, republican in form, of the said several States, and be restored to their political power in the Union.

SECTION 3. That the General of the army is authorized to remove any or all civil officers now acting under the several provisional governments within said several disorganized States, and appoint others to discharge the duties pertaining to their respective offices, and may do any or all acts which by said several laws above mentioned are authorized to be done by the several commanders of military departments within said States; and so much of said acts, or of any acts, as authorizes the President to detail military commanders for said military departments, or to remove any officers which may be detailed as herein provided, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. That it shall be unlawful for the President to order any part of the army or navy to assert by force of arms the authority of either of said provisional governments in said disorganized States, or to oppose or obstruct the authority of the United States, as provided in this act and acts to which this is supplementary.

SECTION 5. That any interference by any persons with intent to prevent the free execution of orders of the General of the Army, made in pursuance of this act and acts aforesaid, shall be held to be a high misdemeanor, and the party guilty thereof shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars and imprisoned not exceeding two years.

SECTION 6. That so much of all acts or parts of acts as conflict or are inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

HOWARD'S REPORT ON STANTON—GENERAL GRANT AND STANTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9, 1868.

Official circles here have been thrown into great agitation by rumors which are afloat, and which seem to be well founded. These rumors involve the propriety of certain acts of high public functionaries.—Senator Howard's "speech" in defence of Edwin M. Stanton was yesterday submitted to the Military Committee, but it was not read—much less approved and adopted as the report of the committee. Mr. Stanton and Senator Howard, together with several other Radical Senators, were dined by Gen. Grant the evening previous, and it has leaked out that this extraordinary document was then and there read and discussed in the General's hearing and presence. It is difficult to believe that General Grant would patiently listen to a document, even in the hands of a United States Senator, charging his superior officer with duplicity and falsehood. Yet the fact is, these gentlemen were invited to dine with Grant, and did so dine the evening before the document was submitted to the Senate committee; Howard not only submitted to them his proposed report, but that the programme for the future was determined on. These facts becoming known, they have led to much severe criticism by no means complimentary to the General commanding the armies; and it is whispered around in official circles that if these reports turn out to be true, the country need not be startled at the announcement of a court martial to pass upon the propriety of such proceedings.

THE CONSERVATIVE VICTORY IN MEMPHIS.—The result of the recent municipal election in Memphis, Tennessee, is full of significance and encouragement to the tyrant-trodden people of the Southern States. The issue there was fairly made between the Radicals and Conservatives.—The election was conducted strictly in accordance with the letter of the law, and, in the absence of the military interference in behalf of the Radical candidates, a splendid Conservative victory was won by a handsome majority over the combined Radical vote. This shows what can be done by organization and persistent effort in the Southern communities, whenever the military commanders will allow a fair election to be held. In this instance Gen. Gordon Granger, the military commander, instead of stimulating and protecting frauds on the part of the Radical candidates and leaders, as has been done in nearly all the other sections in the South, adhered closely to the performance of his legitimate duty of preserving the peace and protecting all parties alike in the exercise of the elective franchise. Like Gen. Hancock, this good soldier and gallant officer believes that it is the duty of a soldier, in time of peace, to uphold and protect constitutional liberty and maintain the supremacy of the laws. Such soldiers are an honor to the country, and worthy of the confidence and respect of the people and the Government.

CURE OF CROUP.—An exchange, referring to the fact of a Doctor in Heidelburg and two of his assistants having died of croup in consequence of sucking the blood flowing during a successful operation of tracheotomy, stated that the disease is always curable by a very simple remedy, even when the patient is on the verge of suffocation.—This consists, first, in applying water to the throat by means of a sponge or soft cloth, so hot as to be very painful to the hand of the operator, instant relief being usually afforded. After this has been continued for fifteen to thirty minutes, a poultice of linseed meal, rolled up in a cloth, is to be applied while very hot, and left on for some time. The remedies are to be repeated should the attack return; but the writer states that, after a long experience, he has never known them to fail.

In a speech in the House of Representatives, last Thursday, Mr. Marshall, of Illinois, said that a majority of the Federal officials seemed to have adopted the maxim:

A little thieving is a dangerous art,
But thieving largely is a noble part;
'Tis vile to rob a hen roost of a hen,
But stealing largely makes us gentlemen.

GOLD MINING IN RANDOLPH.—A friend, writing us from Asheboro, under date of the 11th. instant, says:

"Dr. J. J. Hamlin, to-day, exhibited to me a considerable quantity of gold, which he has recently, as he informed me, obtained from a mine which he is working, in a few miles of this place. From the specimens, I take it that the mine is really a very valuable one, and his persistent energy in working it, under the prospect of negro agrarianism, is worthy of commendation and imitation. The bullion shown me by him was worth several hundred dollars, and furnishes an evidence, which cannot be mistaken, of the wealth of this section in minerals, as well as other resources, which would soon restore us to prosperity, were it not for the prospect of ignorant negro agrarian rule with which the Radicals are threatening our country. But remove this just and terrible apprehension from the minds of our people, and thousands upon thousands of dollars, now judiciously kept in the pockets of the owner, with which to stave from under in probable emergencies, will at once be invested in improvements, giving work, and thereby bread, to the laboring classes, both white and colored, who are now almost starving."

REV. T. H. PRITCHARD.—The Petersburg Index, of the 13th., has the following flattering notice of this gentleman:

"In this connection we may mention that Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard, the beloved pastor of the First Baptist Church, in this city, either has accepted or is expected to accept a call to Raleigh, recently extended him. We make this announcement with very great regret, for, in losing Mr. Pritchard, his church will lose a most faithful and efficient minister, the Petersburg pulpit an ornament, and the community a most valued and loved citizen."

NORTH CAROLINA CONVENTION. The farce that has been going on in Virginia, Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana will commence in North Carolina on the 14th. of the present month. The Radical menagerie will exhibit at Raleigh, and will contain a few intelligent gentlemen, sundry white men with negro sympathies and affiliations, a few scattering hybrids and a heap of the genuine, unmistakable, ebon-skin, gorilla foot, odoriferous Africans.—Rich. Whig.

The Native Virginian publishes the following epitaph on a notorious person, which, unfortunately for the country, has to treat by anticipation the event that could truly make it an epitaph:

To fawn, and flatter, and lie,
To lie, and flatter, and fawn, he Spent his whole life, and he e's the
Of the lying and flattering Savage.

MARRIED,

In this City, on yesterday morning, by the Rev. Wm. E. Pell, Mr. WESLEY H. BELL, of Newbern, to Miss LAURA S. LIPSCOMB, daughter of O. D. Lipscomb, Esq.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES IN DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. HULKELEY, President. T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the

of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual Insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

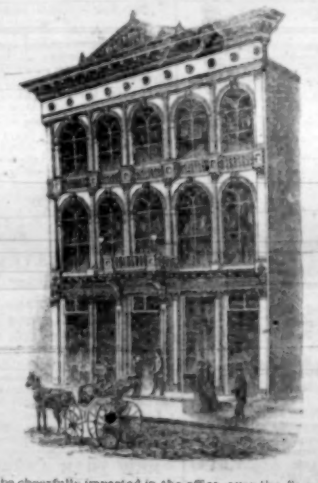
ABOVE LIABILITIES.



THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION. A VERY IMPORTANT FACT. AND HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR. HAS 47,000 MEMBERS.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN GRANVILLE.

The Conservative people of Granville are earnestly requested to meet in Convention, at Oxford, on Saturday, the 25th. of this month, to take into consideration the condition of the country, and also to appoint delegates to the Conservative State Convention, to be held in Raleigh, on Wednesday, the 5th. of February next.

MANY CITIZENS.

January 13th., 1868.

New Advertisements.—Situation wanted as a Teacher, by a young lady of experience: Address Rev. C. H. Wiley, Greensboro.

Family Corn Sheller,—a really wonderful and most useful invention: Can be seen at Stronach Bros. See advertisement.

Mayor's Court.—Mint Gorman, colored, charged with being concerned in stealing meat from Richard Brown, colored, was returned to the County Court.

William Harper, U. S. soldier, arrested for being in the city without permission, was lodged in the Guard House and turned over to the military authorities.

W. H. Pool, Co. A, U. S. Infantry, arrested by the Chief of Police for being in the city without permission, was also lodged in the Guard House.

Personal.—We had the pleasure of a visit on yesterday, from Mr. W. A. Hearn, Esq., of the Wilson Carolinian. Hearne will remain in the City for some time, and is stopping at the Yarborough House. He will doubtless furnish his paper with some racy sketches of the doings of the Convention.—We take great pleasure in commending the Carolinian as one of the staunchest and most enterprising journals in the State, and Mr. H., himself, as a most worthy representative of the Press.

The so called.—The Hall of the House of Commons presented a novel spectacle, on yesterday. Negroes in the most prominent seats,—negroes crowding the lobbies—and "Nothing but nigger everywhere!"

The day, even, was dark and black, as fitly it should have been.

It is announced, in the sketch of proceedings, that eighty five delegates were in attendance, though others are said to have come in subsequent to the announcement, making 100. We will give to-morrow a list of all who may then be in attendance.

Our Reporter is without previous experience, but, after he shall have familiarized himself with the form of proceedings, we doubt not that he will be able to give our readers satisfactory reports. We shall endeavor to have them faithful, without allowing them to occupy undue space.

Our Schools.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that our City Schools are resuming operations the present week.

The Male School of the Rev. Dr. Mason, assisted by Mr. Samuel G. Ryan, at the old and well-known Raleigh Academy, commences on Friday.

Rev. Dr. Lacy's School for boys, and Mrs. Lacy's School for girls, will also commence on the same day.

Mrs. Howell's School for young ladies began on yesterday.

Miss Frances A. Haywood's School for children re-opens on the 20th., and Miss Winifred West's School, also for children of either sex, began on Monday.

St. Mary's begins its 52nd. Term to-morrow.

Mrs. A. M. Gorman's School began on Monday, and Mr. John T. Womble's English and Classical School commenced on the same day.

Discontinued.—The Daily Advertiser, the publication of which was recently commenced in this city, has been discontinued. Mr. Hughes gives notice that he will settle all claims against the establishment.

Sausage.—We owe thanks to Messrs. Christophers & Bradley, for the present of an excellent article of sausage-meat.—They have commenced its regular preparation, and we can commend it. Said that rare wag, Sam Weller: "What pie is a very good thing, perwided you knows who made it!" There can be no mistake in that "made" by our friends on Fayetteville Street.

Gold, it will be seen, continues to go up rapidly. It will continue to rise, as the result of Radical ruin.

Municipal.—At the last special meeting of the Board of Commissioners, there were present:

Wm. D. Haywood, Esq., Mayor; Messrs. D. L. Royster, J. J. Overby, J. M. Betts, R. H. Battle, J. A. Moore, A. N. McKimmon, B. F. Cheatham and P. Overby, Commissioners.

The following persons applied to the Board, to be recommended to the County Court, as suitable persons to have license to retail spirituous liquors by the small measure; which were granted, viz: J. P. Prarie, Alvis Sorrell, J. J. Overby, A. N. Upchurch, Parker Overby and Theodore Joseph.

On motion of Mr. Battle, ordered that the subject of the bonds of Retailers be submitted to the City Attorney.

On motion of Mr. McKimmon, ordered that the moneys received for license to retail liquors, under General orders No. 164, be paid over to Messrs. W. J. Palmer, Rev. W. S. Lacy and Jones, of the Young Men's Christian Association, and that they be appointed Commissioners to receive and disburse the same to the poor of the city of Raleigh.

On motion of Mr. McKimmon, a tax of $50 was imposed on each person receiving a recommendation for license.

On motion, Messrs. Wm. H. Jones & Co., were appointed Auctioneers of the city for twelve months.

Also, Mr. V. Ballard was appointed Auctioneer for the same time.

On motion of Mr. Battle, the sum of $50 was refunded to Messrs. W. C. Parker, J. Backalan, C. F. Johns and Nelson Blake, each, it being their license tax, reduced from $100 to $50.

On motion of Mr. J. J. Overby, the rent of the City Hall, over the Market, was fixed at $150, the rentors paying all repairs, and giving bond and security for rent.

The following ordinance was adopted:

Be it ordained, That the ordinance pertaining to the election of Superintendent of the Fire Department of this city be repealed and the following substituted:

That the Superintendent of the Fire Department be elected by a majority of the voters of the members of the Fire Companies, and chosen annually at the January meeting of the Fire Companies; that he be and is hereby empowered to superintend the Engines, Hooks and Ladders, Buckets and all other materials, belonging to the Fire Department of this city, and that he shall report quarterly to the Mayor and Commissioners of the city the condition of the Engines, Hooks, Ladders, Hose, Buckets, and all other materials in connection with the Fire Department of this city.

The following ordinance was adopted:

Be it ordained, That section 3, chapter 3, City Ordinance, be repealed, and the following substituted:

To every stove, erected within the city, there shall be an iron, stone or brick hearth, extending at least one foot beyond the size of the stove, and the pipe to every stove, if it pass through the wall or roof of the house, shall extend four feet from the same, shall have a cap or elbow placed over the end of the same, and shall not be placed within eight feet of any other building.

It shall be the duty of the Superintendent of the Fire Department, upon notice being given to him of any infringement of the above portion of this ordinance, at once to repair to the place, and he is hereby empowered to give the parties notice to remove the stove and appurtenances, within twenty-four hours; if not removed within said time, he (the Superintendent of Fire Department,) shall at once remove said stove and all other materials appertaining thereto, and the person not complying with the first notice of the Superintendent of the Fire Department shall be liable to a fine of $10, to be imposed by the Mayor of the city. If the Superintendent of the Fire Department shall deem it expedient, he shall call in the services of the Chief of Police, and they, in conjunction with the Police force, shall work together to detect any infringement of this ordinance.

Thos. Dancey was elected one of the Night Watch, in place of P. Waddell, resigned.

On motion of Mr. Moore, the Board adjourned. J. J. CHRISTOPHERS, Clerk.

Supreme Court.—The following are the names of the gentlemen who have received license to practice in the County Courts of the State, viz:

William B. Shaw, Currituck County.
Patrick H. Morgan, Currituck.
Francis M. Godfrey, Pasquotank.
Niell W. Ray, Cumberland.
George M Rose, Cumberland.
William Nelson, Edgecombe.
Joseph A. Dupree, Pitt.

Jesse R. McLean, Guilford.
William M. Cocke, Jr., Buncombe.
Calvin E. Grier, Mecklenburg.
Daniel P. Mast, Caldwell.
Natt. Atkinson, Buncombe.
Benjamin F. Stanton, Guilford.

On yesterday, about forty-five applicants for Superior Court license were examined. The names of the successful candidates will be given to-morrow.

Raleigh National Bank.—The annual meeting of the stockholders in this Institution was held on yesterday, at their Banking House, in this City.

We learn that the election of Directors for the ensuing year resulted in the choice of R. W. Pulliam, Geo. W. Swepson, W. J. Hawkins, A. S. Merrimon and W. H. Willard.

At a subsequent meeting of the new Board of Directors, Col. R. W. Pulliam was chosen President of the Bank for the ensuing year. The other officers of the Bank were continued without change, viz: W. B. Gulick, Cashier, C. J. Iredell, Teller, and W. Hal. Harrison, Corresponding Clerk and Book-keeper.

Rowan and Davie.—Gen. Canby has issued an order, we are pleased to learn, declaring that John S. McCubbins is entitled to seat in the Convention, in place of Isaac M. Shaver, from Rowan and Davie.

Hon. Wm. Lander, of Lincolnton, a gentleman of great worth and excellent abilities, died on the 6th. instant. He had filled many important public trusts.

A Pious Wish.—We wish that Dr. Livingstone were either dead or alive, one or the other, we don't much care which. He seems to be in a very undecided state.—P. S.—He has come to life.—Norfolk Virginian.

Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

THE CASE OF STANTON, &c.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14, M.

Certified copies of the Senate's action regarding Stanton's suspension were furnished the President, Grant and Stanton, last night. The two latter had a conference late last night, and met again this morning at the War Office. Grant left the office afterwards and Stanton remained. He received calls from various officers of the Department, but, up to this hour, (noon,) had not formally commenced business.

Up to noon, the President had taken no action in the premises.

Snow falling heavily.

GEORGIA AFFAIRS.

ATLANTA, Jan. 14, P. M

The army officers detailed by Gen. Meade, as Governor and Treasurer of Georgia, left for Milledgeville this morning.

It is reliably stated that there are no funds in the State Treasury,—all having been removed, in view of the probability of such a seizure as the present.

An order, dated the 10th, appears, from Gov. Jenkins, suspending the collection of all State taxes up to the first of May next.

The old law authorized such suspensions, and the Convention, by a resolution adopted in December, requested him to use his power for that purpose.

The effect of this suspension will be to forbid any collection of the tax imposed by the Convention for the payment of its expenses.

In the Convention, to-day, resolutions were introduced to draw $60,000 from the State Treasury for per diem; and to recommend to Congress to donate public lands to the negroes, and thus give them an opportunity to demonstrate any capacity for self government they may have.

A resolution, commendatory of Gen. Hancock, was indefinitely postponed, by 126 to 13.

An article on the franchise was reported, which gives negroes the right to hold office, and disfranchises, up to Jan. 1, 1869, all who are disfranchised by the Howard amendment, and cannot register under the reconstruction laws.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 14, P. M.

The Reconstruction Convention, composed of 53 whites and 68 negroes, met in pursuance of Gen. Canby's order, at noon, to-day.

Ninety-two delegates, constituting a quorum, were present. Robertson, of Columbia, was chosen temporary Chairman.

The day was consumed in the examination of credentials of delegates. A permanent organization will probably be effected to-morrow. The choice for permanent President lies between Collector A. G. Mackey and B. F. Whittemore, a Massachusetts man, hailing from Darlington District The proceedings, to-day, were quiet and orderly.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, GREATLY FACILITATES the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for yse'ar and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—Never has it Failed in a single instance to Effect a Cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and Pledge our Reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1868.

[From the National Intelligencer.]

A SUGGESTED PRACTICAL SOLUTION OF THE NEGRO QUESTION.

The presses of the day contain many heart-rending descriptions of the destitution of the freedmen of the South. We have overwhelming reasons to believe that these accounts are by no means exaggerated. The thoughts of all true philanthropists ought now to be directed to the discovery of some mode of ameliorating the condition of these unfortunate people. They are the wards of the nation, and the guardian is bound to look to the welfare of the wards.

The true cause of the difficulty is the concentration of the black population in one part of the country; and the true remedy, it is suggested to Radicals, will be found in diffusing them more equally over the whole country.

We all have heard that when the Pilgrim fathers and the authorities of Great Britain brought the negro to America, they did so, not, of course, from considerations of private greed, but for the benevolent purpose of civilizing and christianizing him, and thus fitting him for the highest enjoyments of this life, and a happy state in the world to come!

In other words, the slave trade and the institution of slavery were but parts of a great missionary system, for the temporal and eternal redemption of the benighted sons of Africa! The thoughtful and considerate Pilgrim fathers, and humane predecessors of the apostles of Exeter Hall, knew that it would avail little to send missionaries to Africa, where they could not effect much towards the fulfilment of their beneficent designs, (and might, perhaps, be roasted and eaten by the unregenerated,) and, therefore, they reversed the ordinary process, and, instead of sending the missionary to the heathen, they brought the heathen to the missionary. The "middle passage" was a good system of purgatorial probation, and prepared the minds of the neophytes for the ready adoption of the doctrines of Christianity.

The benefits of this wise forecast on the part of the Pilgrim fathers and their colaborers in the cause of humanity is now made manifest by the great fact, that we this day behold four millions of colored brethren said to be redeemed from barbarism, and prepared for the refinements of civilized life and for the duties of sovereignty as citizens.

The time has, of course, more than come when it is necessary to take another forward step in this march of humanity and progress. The negroes must be brought into contact with the higher civilization and more advanced ideas of the North.—Following the precedent adopted in the outset of this great movement, the negro must now be transferred from his present position in the South, and brought into intimate communication and association with the benign influences of the social system of the Radicals of the North.

The grain-fields, the workshops, the commercial marts, the printing-houses, the common schools, the churches, and the family mansions of the North, must, as a matter of course, be opened to him. Labor in all the departments of human industry is needed, and thousands of our black brethren are ready to respond to the demand.

Let Congress, then, acting in the Radical direction, invite them to migrate to the fertile fields of the West, and to the busy haunts of commerce and manufactures in the North. In consistence with Radical theory, let donations of homesteads be made to blacks as well as whites, who propose to till the soil; and let liberal appropriations be made from the national treasury to pay the expenses of their removal to the new theatre of their patriotic labors. Let Senator Sprague and other humane and public-spirited manufacturers introduce hundreds of bright colored youths into their factories. Let Mr. Greeley and other philanthropic publishers of newspapers adopt into their establishments scores of negro boys, to be educated up to the highest standard of morals and literature, as exhibited in the columns of the Tribune. Let Pittsburg invite thousands of dusky Vulcans to aid in eliminating from the bowels of the earth that great agent of civilization—iron. Let Yale, and Harvard, and Dartmouth enter into a generous strife as to which shall bear off the palm of the highest liberality in discarding obsolete prejudices, and contributing to the elevation and refinement and cultivation of the much-wronged children of Ham. Old prejudices must be eradicated, and feelings of active benevolence, and the true principles of fraternity and equality substituted in their stead.

Should the policy above indicated be adopted a new era will dawn on our happy country. We shall be independent of men whom the Radicals characterize as Irish and Dutch, and other foreigners, who, we have the high authority of Mr. Wade for saying, are inferior in virtue and intelligence to the blacks. How grand the effect! A check will be given to white immigration; white labor will be cheapened to the capitalist; strikes among white artizans will be stopped; industry in all its branches will be stimulated, and our whole country will blossom like the rose.

Considerations of national, or rather sectional economy, also recommend the adoption of this policy of distribution and diffusion. Now we have to keep up the Freedmen's Bureau and standing armies at enormous cost in the unreconstructed States to protect the blacks in their rights. Let us remove the negro, as the Radicals seem to desire, to the North and West; then every Northern and Western community will be a voluntary and self-sustaining freedmen's bureau and a standing army, eager and anxious to sustain and cherish the black race without money and without price.

THE LATE BISHOP HOPKINS.

The late senior Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States, John Henry Hopkins, of Vermont, whose death occurred last Thursday, was born in Dublin, Ireland, in the year 1792, and came to America, with his parents, in 1800. After receiving a classical education, he entered a counting room in Philadelphia, but shortly after embarked in the manufacture of iron in Western Pennsylvania. Subsequently he studied for the bar, and was admitted to practice in Pittsburg; but in 1823 changed his profession and entered the ministry. After having had charge of churches in Pittsburg and Boston, he was elected, in 1832, Bishop of Vermont, and filled the office to the time of his death—being at that time the oldest Bishop, by consecration, in the United States, and as such President of the House of Bishops. He was a man of commanding presence and patriarchal aspect, of much and varied learning, and of utter fearlessness in the pursuit or defence of right. He was one of the few heroic men who dared to confront in New England the fanaticism and heresies that ruled the minds and swayed the passions of that people. He did not hesitate to defend slavery, as a God-ordained institution, to denounce the war and to justify the South, and as soon as the war ended he came South to offer what sympathy and aid he could to her people. Honored be his memory as that of a good and valiant man.

His successor as Presiding Bishop is Bishop Smith, of Kentucky.

BEAUTIFUL ALLEGORY.—Mr. Crittenden was engaged in defending a man who had been indicted for a capital offence. After an elaborate and powerful defence, he closed his effort by the following striking and beautiful allegory:

"When God in his eternal counsel conceived the thought of man's creation, he called to him the three ministers who wait constantly upon his throne,—Justice, Truth, and Mercy—and thus addressed them:

"Shall we make man?" Then said Justice, "O God make him not for he will trample upon Thy laws." Truth made an answer, "O God, make him not for he will pollute Thy sanctuaries." But Mercy dropped upon her knees and looking up through her tears, exclaimed: "O God make him—I will watch over him with care through all the dark paths which he may tread." Then God made man, and said to him, "O man thou art the child of mercy—go deal with thy brother."

The jury, when he had finished, went into tears, and against evidence and what must have been their own convictions, brought in a verdict of "Not guilty."

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent in extending the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people. The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Jan. 1—125-tf BRIGGS & DODD.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS, 2D MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th day of April, 1865, for the 18th day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions herein made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBT.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, receivers or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 20, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principals and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the (poll) tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due; provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st day of March, 1868.
